MAYURBHANJ STATE

Mayurbhanj ranks first in point of population and revenue among the States of the Eastern States Agency, numbering forty, twenty-six of which were till April 1933 known as the Orissa States, and fourteen as the Central Provinces States. The history of its ruling family goes back into hoary antiquity, and numerous archaeological finds testify to its powerful sway, and to the vast domains that constituted its territory, for hundreds of years. Its geographical and strategic position constituted it an important buffer state at a time when the East India Company and the Mahrathas were engaged in a struggle for supremacy in Eastern India, and when in 1803, the Mahratha power was routed by the British in Orissa. Maharani Sumitra Devi, who was the ruler of Mayurbhanj at the time, rendered valuable aid to the Company's arms. A treaty was concluded with her grandson in 1829 by the British authorities. During the Mutiny of 1857, the ruler of Mayurbhanj again distinguished himself as a loyal ally of the East India Company. A succession of wise rulers has helped Mayurbhanj to win the reputation of a model state; and the present ruler's father, Maharaja Sriram Chandra, administered the state on British lines in a manner which earned universal commendation. Judicial independence, which has been secured under a full-powered High Court, is a special feature of its administration.

The State is rich in mineral and forest resources, and supplies the bulk of raw materials needed for the Tata Iron and Steel Works of Jamshedpur. The present administration is making every effort to promote the industrial interests of the State, by affording technical instructions on various lines and financial aid to home industries. Co-operative credit and agricultural organizations are making steady headway, while general education is spreading through well-regulated schools and a liberal system of scholarships. A net-work of good roads is proving a powerful aid to business enterprise, besides facilitating communication.

The Capital of the State is Baripada which is a progressive municipal town providing modern amenities. It is served by the Mayurbhanj Railway which takes off at Rupsa, a junction station on the Calcutta-Madras line of the B N Ry.

The present Maharaja, who succeeded his brother in 1928, received his education in the Rajkumar College, Ajmer, and Muir Central College, Allahabad. He is an enlightened prince with democratic ideas, and takes a keen personal interest in all branches of the administration. He has married into the Shisodia Family of Shajhpura Rulers in Rajputana. The Maharaja enjoys a hereditary salute of 9 guns, and is a permanent member of the Chamber of Princes.

There are also Dak Bungalows at Baripada and all Sub-divisions

SANTOSH RAJ ESTATE

It is one of the most ancient estates in Eastern Bengal. It was established before the reign of the Mogul Emperor Shah Jahan in the 17th Century. The Hon'ble Raja's estates are in the districts of Mymensingh and Pabna. It is at present divided into five principal divisions, within the respective jurisdiction of Santosh, Pagaldighee, Messra, Chuniapatel and Kashtala Raj Cutcharies, with the Head Office in Calcutta. There are primary schools and dispensaries for the benefit of the tenants of each of these divisions. A very large percentage of the tenants are Mohammedans. Major portion of the estate is under cultivation, Jute being the principal crop. There are fisheries, forests with valuable timbers, markets and trade centres which also bring revenue to the estate

PALITANA STATE—Bombay Presidency

A nine-gun State in the Gohilwad division (Kathiawar) of the Western India States Agency. Area, 288 square miles. Revenue about Rs 12,00,000. The chief town, Palitana, is a station on the Bhavnagar State Railway. Palitana is justly celebrated for its Jain temples on the Shatrunjaya Hill, situated within the Palitana State jurisdiction. This hill is sacred to Adinath, the deified founder and organiser of Jainism. The entire summit is covered with temples, amongst which the most famous are those of Adinath, Kumarpal, Vimalsha, Sampriti, Raja and the Chamukh. The last is the most lofty temple on the hill and can be clearly distinguished from a distance of 25 miles. Shatrunjaya is the most sacred of the five sacred hills of the Jains in India. Owing to the special sanctity of the Shatrunjaya hill, Jains from all parts of India in affluent circumstances are anxious to construct temples on the hill, and all members of the faith feel it a duty to perform, if possible, at least one Pilgrimage here during their life. Palitana is chiefly noted for its pure breed of Kathi horses. Population (1931), 65,150

SACHIN—Bombay Presidency

A state in Gujarat in political relationship with the Government of India, direct through the intermediary of an Agent to the Governor-General in the Gujarat States. The State maintains a Military force of Head-quarters and two Platoons and a Cavalry force of one Sabre Troop, designated under the Indian State forces scheme. In 1733 a triple treaty was concluded between the Peshwa, the Sidi Abdul Karim Mohamed Yakut Khan I, and the East India Company on the basis of an offensive and defensive alliance. By this alliance the Sidi Abdul Karim Mohamed Yakut Khan I, took the State of Sachin. The Sidis of Sachin have always been staunch supporters of the British power in India and as far back as 1770 helped the British against Angaria. The Capital of the State is Sachin. The Summer Capital of the Ruler is Dumas—a beautiful town situated 22 miles from Sachin proper. The Nawab is entitled to a salute of 11 guns. Area of the State 247 square miles. Population, 222,000

The terminus of the South Indian Railway, 446 miles from Madras and the chief port of the district, affording good shelter to small boats, but owing to the shallowness of the water, steamers of even moderate draught have to anchor some seven miles from the shore. Tuticorin is also a municipal town and of great commercial importance. It lies on the Srivaikuntam taluq of the Tinnevely district, and is situated on the west shore of the Gulf of Manaar and between the mouths of the Tambraparni and the Vaippar. There are large cotton mills in the town and extensive salt factories; there is limited accommodation for travellers at the railway station. Languages spoken:—English and Tamil

There is a Travellers' Rest House in the town

The District Head-quarters is at Tinnevely
